S.R.O. 269, dated 28th Aug. 1956.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (4) of section 26 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), the Central Government hereby directs that the existing electoral rolls in respect of Nasirabad Cantonment shall continue in operation until the new electoral rolls are published.

[No. 29/11/G/L&C/55/8228/LC/D(C&L).]

S.R.O. 270, dated 28th Aug. 1956.—The following bye-laws for the regulation of stabling or herding of animals and for licensing of premises for use as stables or cow houses in Wellington Cantonment framed by the Cantonment Board, Wellington in exercise of powers conferred by clause (11) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. Definitions.—In these bye-laws:—

(a) Animal means 1. Elephant, Buffalo, Horse, or mare.

2. Gelding, Pony, Colt, Filly, Mule, Bull, Bullock, Cow or Heifer.

3. Calf above the age of one year, ram, ewe, sheep, lamb, goat, kid, ass or pig.

(b) Stable or Cow house means any house, shed, building, courtyard or place where any animal is kept or fed.

2. No person shall use any place or premises in the Cantonment for the herding or stabling of any animal without getting a licence for such place or premises from the Cantonment Executive Officer.

3. Any person desiring to use any place or premises in the Cantonment will apply to the Cantonment Executive Officer in the prescribed form approved by the Cantonment Board. The Executive Officer in consultation with the Health Officer may either grant the licence in accordance with the following bye-laws or for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse it.

The number of animals to be lodged or picketed in any premises shall be determined by the Executive Officer.

4. The licence shall be in form to be approved by the Cantonment Board.

5. Such licence shall hold good for the period commencing from the date of licence to 31st March of each year.

6. A sum of rupees three shall be charged and collected from every licensee at the time of issuing the licence to meet the cost of granting the same.

7. No licence shall be granted for the use of any premises as a stable or cow-house which does not provide an area of 40 sq. ft. or each head of cattle authorised to be kept therein or thereon, provided that a licence may be granted for the use of an existing stable of less dimensions, if, in the opinion of the Health Officer it is provided with proper floor, drainage and sufficient windows or other openings communicating with the external air so as to ensure proper lighting and ventilation, and is suitable for the purpose for which it is intended. No licence shall be granted for the use of premises for the accommodation of sheep, goats, or pigs unless a space of at least 120 cubic feet is allowed for each animal.

8. The floor of all premises to be used for the stabling or herding of animals must be adequately paved with asphalt, dressed stone with cement pointing or with some other suitable impervious material approved by the Health Officer. The floor shall slope towards and end in a drainage channel leading to a moveable receptacle placed over a cemented platform to be provided by the owner or occupier of any such stable or cow-house.

9. A licence shall not be granted in respect of any premises situated below any building used for human habitation, unless ceiling of such premises is separated from the floor of such building by an unbroken layer of at least three inches of concrete, stone, brick or mud.

10. A licence shall not be granted in respect of any premises which is situated within 100 feet of any bakery, any licensed butchery or meat stall or any other place where food or drink is prepared or manufactured for sale to the public, if in the opinion of the Cantonment Board that grant of such licence is considered harmful.

11. Every owner or occupier of any premises used as a stable or as a cow-house shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, dispose off or cause to be disposed off, all the dung and dry refuse in such places as the Executive Officer may fix for this purpose but he shall not store any dung or dry fodder at the licensed place.

No dung or liquid matter or water used for washing the premises shall be permitted to flow into any public drain, nor shall it be deposited in any public receptacle.

12. No premises in respect of which licence has been granted for the stabling or herding of animals under these bye-laws shall be used as a place for human habitation.

13. Every owner or occupier of premises used for stabling or herding of animals shall cause such premises to be cleaned out daily between 06.00 and 08.00 hours and the walls and ceiling thereof to be lime washed at least once in two months.

14. The licence-holder shall carry out all orders of the Cantonment Executive Officer, the Assistant Health Officer and the Health Officer issued in respect of sanitation of the place.

15. The licence-holder shall exhibit the licence at some prominent place in the licensed premises and shall allow the same to be inspected by the Cantonment Executive Officer, Assistant Health Officer, Health Officer or any other servant of the Board duly authorised in this connection.

16. The licence shall be transferable but notice of such transfer will be given to Cantonment Executive Officer within one week of the transfer.

17. The licence-holder shall at once report the occurrence of any disease among his animals to the Executive Officer for such steps as the latter may deem fit to take in the interest of prevention or spread of such disease on the advice of the Health Authorities.

18. A licence granted under these bye-laws may be suspended or cancelled by the Cantonment Board for a breach of any of the conditions made under these bye-laws.

19. Penalty.—Any person committing a breach of any of these bye-laws shall on conviction by a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing, contravention with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.
